Brief narrative description of the child

Basira is 10 years old, a destitute girl. She belongs from very poor family. She is reading in class V. Her father has expired and mother has visual impairment in one eye. Her mother is unable to take care and protection of her. Basira's mother works as a maid servant & earns very little amount. So it is not possible for her mother to provide educational support to Basira. So the girl needs educational support from other to develop in life. Therefore, her mother is seeking supportive hands for her daughter to improve in life.
