Brief narrative description of the child

When Arjina came to ABC, she was 5 years old. Her basic needs were fulfilled by her parents. She could not talk with others. Her gross and fine motor were not adequate. She could not follow simple instruction. Now Arjina is 6 years old. She is partially dependent on others for her daily basis personal work. She plays with others children co-operatively. She can speak with others monosyllabic. She reads in pre-schooling (nursery) at DL. School of Excellence for Children with Special Need of Asha Bhavan Centre. She will be promoted to secondary level. She needs educational, co-curricular activities and therapeutic support for her optimum development. So, she needs these support.
